The City of East Point is inviting local businesses to participate in the City's newest concert series, known as "Wednesday Wind Down In The Point." The first concert of this summer series will kick-off on Wednesday, May 23, 2018, in the Downtown Commons, located at 2757 East Point Street from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. National R&B Recording Artist Angie Stone will headline this spectacular event along with performances made by local bands and artists.

The City wants to help local businesses gain exposure by giving them the opportunity to provide an in-kind donation for "Wednesday Wind Down In The Point." In exchange for your participation, you will receive the following:

- Recognition as a sponsor during the event a minimum of two times.
- Complimentary booth in a premium location or the opportunity to bring a food truck.
- Your company mentioned as a sponsor on the invitation to VIP guests.

Your food or non-alcoholic beverage donation will only be provided for guests in our VIP section. Businesses can also be a food or drink sponsor at subsequent dates for the event on June 27, July 25, and August 22. Don't miss out on this great opportunity to expose your business to visitors here in East Point!

To become a food or drink sponsor, please contact Jamayca Cole at jcole@eastpointcity.org or (404) 559-6364.
