ABOUT US

National Black & Latino Council is a non-profit organization for Hispanic, Latino, & African American professionals, small business owners, entrepreneurs, corporate executives, government officials & media industry representatives. National Black & Latino Council is the only professional organization in the USA whose mission is to unite the Black & Brown Business Community & Consumer. Hispanic & African-American segment has buying power of $2.3 trillion. The National Black Latino Council has been promoting cross-cultural small business development in the African-American and Hispanic/Latino communities through a series of dynamic signature events that provide minority and women-owned businesses with unique B2B access designed to stimulate commerce and job creation in the African-American and Hispanic/Latino community for their members and affiliates. International business starts here at home and together we can build better businesses and better communities.

INVESTING INTO THE FUTURE

This calendar also gives Corporations the opportunity to highlight their diverse employees, and any initiatives that address their commitment to being apart of the solution.

All funds raised will go to the efforts of NBLC, Mario's Art Academy, and Ballethnic Dance Co., to dismantle economic disparities faced in the African Americans and Latino communities by providing them with resources, tools and opportunities.

The Black Lives Matter Calendar will also acknowledge the birthdays of 45 Black individuals that have been murdered by racial injustice listed on the Black Lives Matter website. along with a Monthly Positive Diverse Images.

THIS CALENDAR IS IN ASSOCIATION OF THE CITY OF EAST POINT COUNCILMAN LANCE ROBERTSON OFFICE, WARD A.
