

Howard Brown Jr.
Interim City Manager

Howard W. Brown Jr. is a credentialed manager with the International City/County Management Association (ICMA) and has a robust career in municipal government spanning over 25 years. Mr. Brown has served as a City Manager in Oklahoma, Florida, and California, and as a Planning Director for two municipalities in Georgia, where he was instrumental in creating pioneering programs such as one of the state's first Tax Allocation Districts and community redevelopment tax incentive programs. He is a graduate of Harvard University's Senior Executives in State and Local Government program, holds a Master's Degree in Public Administration from the University of West Florida, and a Bachelor of Science Degree from Florida State University. Brown's professional certifications include Credentialed Manager with ICMA and Certified Urban Planner with the American Institute of Certified Planners at the American Planning Association. Married with two adult children and two grandchildren, Mr. Brown is also a U.S. Army veteran and the Founder and CEO of Local Government Consulting Group, LLC, a private firm providing consulting services to City Managers and Planning Directors nationwide.